About the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) is an international standard for describing language ability. It describes language ability on a six-point scale, from A1 for beginners, up to C2 for those who have mastered a language.

This means that a particular score on the Cambridge English Scale represents the same level of language proficiency, no matter which exam is taken. For example, scores between 180 and 199 cover CEFR Level C1.

The six levels within the CEFR are A1, A2, B1, B2, C1 and C2. With these levels, you can easily work out your ability in around 40 different languages. The levels are often used casually by language learners to explain their ability at speaking, reading, writing and understanding a language.
